

2019 SEAPAVAA Best Archival Project in the Region Award Nomination Form

The SEAPAVAA Best Archival Project in the Region Award strives to recognize projects that have inspired archival design thought and exhibit technical and spatial innovations. Nominees for the Award must have made innovative, influential, and inspiring achievement through special projects for the audiovisual archiving industry in any country in the Southeast Asia-Pacific region. An example of a project that fits the criteria is the use of tea leaves as an alternative for the preservation of Cellulose Triacetate Film (Bell, J., Newnham, M. & Nel, P., 2017).

Projects started anytime from 2013 until present whether ongoing or completed may be nominated for the award.

Criteria	Percentage (%)
	Total: 100
Innovation (Introduces new methods and technique)	25
Influential (Serves as a model for other projects to follow)	25
Effective (Practical and works efficiently)	25
Inspiring (Encourages archival solution and design)	25

Award Prize:

One (1) entry will be awarded as the 2019 Best Archival Project with US$ 1000.00 (sponsored by AV Preservation by reto.ch).

Honorable mentions will receive Certificate of Merit.

Awardee(s) need to take care of their own travel expenses (airfare, accomodation, etc.) if they wish to receive the awards in person, or they may appoint a representative(s) who are confirmed to attend SEAPAVAA's annual conference to receive the awards in their behalf.

Eligibility & Nomination Procedures:

Only SEAPAVAA members of good standing are eligible to nominate a project. Nominees can be from outside the association's membership. The completed nomination form and relevant supporting document of the project must be emailed to the SEAPAVAA Secretariat via e-mail at admin@seapavaa.net or at secretariat@seapavaa.net on or before 30 April 2019.
