

Grimwade Centre for Cultural Materials Conservation

Expressions of interest: PhD scholarships for the Grimwade Centre for Cultural Materials Conservation, The University of Melbourne

The Grimwade Centre for Cultural Materials Conservation at the University of Melbourne, Australia is seeking expressions of interest from potential PhD applicants. Annually we have up to three PhD scholarships available to applicants of high academic merit that are aligned to our strengths. This year we will consider proposals that extend the Grimwade Centre's research strengths in Media and Performance Art Conservation.

To read more about our research strengths see: <https://arts.unimelb.edu.au/grimwade-centre-for-cultural-materials-conservation/research/strengths>

If you are interested please send an expression of interest to Dr Nicole Tse, nicoleat@unimelb.edu.au with a title, 100 word proposal and a short CV (between 2-5 pages). Upon further discussion, formal applications will then be due to the University of Melbourne as follows:

Applications from	Closing dates	Applications notified
International applicants*	31 August	11 October
Domestic applicants	31 October	13 December

For more information on our PhD program and the application process please see our website: <https://study.unimelb.edu.au/find/courses/graduate/doctor-of-philosophy-arts/entry-requirements/>

For more information on scholarships: <https://study.unimelb.edu.au/find/courses/graduate/doctor-of-philosophy-arts/fees/>